

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public will receive a diverse range of comment and opinions. This is an important issue. Multiple voices and rival opinions lead to better decisions. Markets may not be dominated by one corporation.